Alan DeValerio ~ White House Memories

Thursday, April 4, 2024 1:30 PM at Senior Box Office

Have you ever imagined what it would be like to attend a Presidential function at the White House? How about a State Dinner? Have you ever wondered what the Family Quarters of the White House look like? Well, former White House butler Alan DeValerio will tell you all about it! He'll give you the inside details about all the preparations involved in White House entertaining, and how it has evolved over the years from FDR to the present. Not only will he relate his firsthand experiences with history, but he'll pass on the stories he heard from those who have been taking care of our First Families ever since the Franklin Roosevelt administration!

Tony Pagnotti ~ My Career in Broadcasting

Thursday, May 2, 2024 10:30 AM at Senior Box Office

Television viewers in Baltimore and beyond will immediately recognize Pagnotti from his more than 30 years on the local airways via WMAR and Fox 45. Pagnotti covered the news, sat at the anchorman's desk, and gave the weather reports, which included, to the delight of viewers the day's "hum-a-didity". Though no longer on the air, Pagnotti has not fully ceased spreading the news as he knows it. A resident of Columbia, he now teaches at the Community College of Baltimore County in Catonsville. His course is called "the fundamentals of communication" — the same class he taught for a decade at the University of Maryland in College Park.
