

Grounds for Sculpture
Hamilton, New Jersey
Wednesday, October 15

Grounds for Sculpture is a museum, sculpture garden and arboretum where art and nature are always at play. Outdoors, nearly 300 sculptures, including Renoir's painting the Boating Party, are visible in the 42 landscaped acres. Indoors there are 6 galleries with changing exhibits. The park opened in 1992 on the former New Jersey State Fairgrounds. The sculptures range from traditional to humorous as you see a crowd sculpture just outside the park featuring a lady with a bag of groceries and someone waving. It is a charming place to visit. Lunch is on your own either at the Van Gogh Cafe or for a sit-down meal try Rats Restaurant (reservations recommended at 1-609-584-7800 or ratsrestaurant.com). We will arrive at the park around 11:30.
