President's Fall Message

The hot summer days are fading and we are heading into our colorful autumn season where the cooler weather invites us to get out and about - the attached brochure is full of events that should encourage your participation.

If you attended one of our summer programs or are curious about one – visit our SBO website and Facebook pages for the photos! We are trying to post timely photos of our members enjoying the many activities offered.

While our local offerings are very popular, it seems our Travel program has not generated as much interest. Please see page 31 for an important announcement about our Travel program.

A Senior Box Office membership is not only a great gift for the holiday season but for birthdays, anniversaries, retirements and more - Only $25 for a membership! See page 5 for the SBO Gift Certificate.

Hope to see you at one of the events this Fall!

Elaine Breslaw ~ History of Witchcraft in Europe and America

Thursday, October 30, 2025 1:00 PM at Senior Box Office

Former Morgan State University professor Elaine Breslaw will give a presentation on the History of Witchcraft in Europe and America, from the Middle Ages until the time of general disbelief in witchcraft (or has belief completely vanished?). Why did people believe in witches, why did others so readily accuse their neighbors of witchcraft? Did witches really travel through the air on broomsticks? What means were used to extract confessions from witches? What horrendous punishments did witches endure? Come find out.

Please mail this form as soon as possible to: Senior Box Office, 1801 Glen Keith Blvd, Towson, MD 21286. You may also email us at sbo@seniorboxoffice.org or call us at 410-887-5399 to make your reservation.

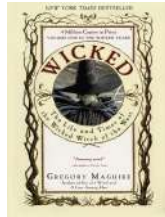

Bring your family and friends. SBO Membership not required. Refreshments served.

Wicked: The Life and Times of the Wicked Witch of the West by Gregory Maguire

Years before Dorothy and her dog crash-land, another little girl makes her presence known in Oz. This girl, Elphaba, is born with emerald-green skin—no easy burden in a land as mean and poor as Oz, where superstition and magic are not strong enough to explain or overcome the natural disasters of flood and famine. Still, Elphaba is smart, and by the time she enters Shiz University, she becomes a member of a charmed circle of Oz’s most promising young citizens.

But Elphaba’s Oz is no utopia. The Wizard’s secret police are everywhere. Animals—those creatures with voices, souls, and minds—are threatened with exile. Young Elphaba, green and wild and misunderstood, is determined to protect the Animals—even if it means combating the mysterious Wizard, even if it means risking her single chance at romance. Ever wiser in guilt and sorrow, she can find herself grateful when the world declares her a witch. And she can even make herself glad for that young girl from Kansas.

Inhabiting a suitably gothic stage, actor Daniel Hall Kuhn casts a disquieting and mesmerizing spell, bringing Poe's tales vividly to life. This masterful solo performer doesn't simply present these stories; he takes audiences on an immersive journey through the stories, a cathartic, emotional roller coaster ride through the depths of our very souls, courtesy of one of America's greatest writers. | H37 Wed Nov 5                    | GUIDED TOUR: MDOT/SHA Sign ShopThe MDOT/SHA sign shop in Hanover Maryland produces signs for State maintained roadways in all of Maryland’s 23 counties. They fabricate well over 10,000 signs every year for use across the entire state, ranging in size from the small “Push Button to Cross” signs at crosswalks to the large overhead signs on highways. They use several different fabrication processes to create the signs from silk screens to a labor-intensive design and build process. The tour of the shop will begin with the informal “sign museum” which includes decommissioned signage dating as far back as the 1940’s. Participants will walk through the shop to see the various processes in a step-by-step manner.410-787-7674 | MDOT/SHA Sign Shop7491 Connelley Drive, Bldg 2Hanover10:30 am–11:30 amDirections and lunch suggestions will be sent with validated voucher. |
| H38 Fri Nov 7                    | MUSICAL: OliverThe streets of Victorian England come to life as Oliver, a malnourished orphan in a workhouse, becomes the neglected apprentice of an undertaker. Oliver escapes to London and finds acceptance amongst a group of petty thieves and pickpockets led by the elderly Fagin. When Oliver is captured for a theft he did not commit, the benevolent victim, Mr. Brownlow, takes him in. Fearing the safety of his hideout, Fagin employs the sinister Bill Sikes and the sympathetic Nancy to kidnap him back, threatening Oliver’s chances of discovering the true love of a family. | H68 Fri Dec 5                  | GUIDED TOUR: Todd's InheritanceTodd's Inheritance is a waterfront homestead, settled in the mid 17th century, that played a significant role in the Defense of Baltimore in the War of 1812. Because it served as a lookout post, the British burned the house during their attack on Baltimore in September 1814. The house and grounds are now operated as a museum and an interpretive site for stories of the War of 1812, the Todd family, and local history. The tour will include the house, grounds, and cemetery. The museum's exhibits include the War of 1812, local Native American artifacts, Todd family memorabilia, and local agriculture and industrial history. | Thu Nov 6       | PLAY: Trouble in MindA talented and experienced Black actress has been cast in Chaos in Belleville , an anti-lynching play set to open on Broadway. She's paid her dues throughout the years, playing stereotypical supporting roles in second-rate shows, and is ready for her star turn. Chaos in Belleville , written by a white playwright, might not be quite as enlightened a piece as she's been hoping for — but that doesn't mean it won't sell out. A cast of multigenerational Black actors rehearse under the purview of a white director and stage manager, and as the rehearsal process unfolds, theatre conventions and racial politics collide, resulting in a surprisingly funny yet deeply piercing look at the entertainment industry. Pay What You Can.410-276-7837 | Fells PointCorner Theatre251 S Ann St8:00 pm                                                              |

Filled with suspense and surprise, Deceived is the perfect addition to Everyman's annual lineup of holiday mysteries. If you've ever wondered where the term "gaslight" came from before it was named Merriam-Webster's word of the year in 2022, you've got to see this play. Park Rangers will guide visitors around the grounds of Hampton and give voice to the enslaved African Americans and European indentured servants who made the Ridgelys' lavish lifestyle possible. Meet at the overseers' house on the farm side of the park. The tour takes place outside.nps.gov/hamp                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | 410-823-1309Hampton NHS535 Hampton LaneTowson                                                                                                                                          |

It is, however, strongly grounded in the old-time bluegrass sounds of her roots. Her love of traditional country and honky-tonk music adds an easily noticeable twang to many of her songs, and a passion for alternative rock 'n' roll lends a gritty edge wherever it's needed. ## Farewell to SBO Travel

It is with some sadness that I announce that the Travel part of Senior Box Office will end with the trip to Grounds for Sculpture on October 15, 2025. The decision to end travel was made by the SBO board after I suggested it. This past year, our two traditionally most popular trips, the Army Holiday Festival at DAR's Constitution Hall and the Philadelphia Flower Show, both lost money due to poor attendance. We have had to cancel 5 trips due to lack of interest. One understandable reason is that the cost of trips has increased substantially.

I would like to thank the many people involved in making so many day and overnight trips happen over the past many years. During my years of involvement, they include Vi Crook, Sylvan Richter, Phyllis Farmer, Bill Moulds, Swadesh Bhalla, Lee Moulds, Doris Webb, Terry Morton and me. Thanks also to our past travel treasurer, Ed Crook, and our current treasurer, Richard Krejci. Thanks also to the SBO board for their support over the years. We wouldn't have gone very far without the help of all the great folks at Shore Motorcoach.

We are fortunate in Baltimore County to have 17 senior centers, most of which sponsor trips. Check them out at Travel Opportunities for Seniors | Baltimore County Government.

As Rick Steves says, "Keep traveling!"

Anne Graham

Grounds for Sculpture Hamilton, New Jersey Wednesday, October 15

Grounds for Sculpture is a museum, sculpture garden and arboretum where art and nature are always at play. Outdoors, nearly 300 sculptures, including Renoir's painting the Boating Party, are visible in the 42 landscaped acres. Indoors there are 6 galleries with changing exhibits. The park opened in 1992 on the former New Jersey State Fairgrounds. The sculptures range from traditional to humorous as you see a crowd sculpture just outside the park featuring a lady with a bag of groceries and someone waving. It is a charming place to visit. Lunch is on your own either at the Van Gogh Cafe or for a sit-down meal try Rats Restaurant (reservations recommended at 1-609-584-7800 or ratsrestaurant.com). We will arrive at the park around 11:30.

COST: $125 includes transportation, park admission, taxes and tip.

DEPART: 9:00 am Timonium Park & Ride
9:15 am Carney Park & Ride

RETURN: 5:00 pm (approximate)

LEADER: Anne Graham
